We have reached the end of our project, on the 31st of January STRIPS will officially close. But do not worry: all the material produced in these two years can be found on our website!

www.stripserasmusplus.eu

Our website aims to be a melting box containing all the information about the project and its outcomes ... but also a space to browse for information about our transnational meetings in Sweden, Italy and Spain, the last one was in fact on January 17th and 18th in A Coruña, Spain.

On the website you will find information on our dissemination labs and closing events. We offer you the image of one of these: the one held in Italy on December 14th at the Teatro Garabato in Turin.

On this occasion we staged, thanks to Luca Atzori and Silvia Papini, two young performers, some cartoons...but on our website, if you are positively curious, surfing, you can find all the event's pictures, as well.

All activities have had a single objective: to offer an easy to use and to decode tool, able to support the youth workers in the development of their daily activities and their usual communication channels, with the ultimate goal of supporting young immigrants and refugees in their path of integration.

Thanks for the time you have dedicated and continues to follow us on facebook: we already have 2380 likes :))
